Bright Future is a charity based in South Tyneside working with young women aged 11 to 25 to give them a brighter future by raising their self-esteem and confidence. These young women are asking for support in creating Winter Packs for the homeless people across the region. Can you help? If so, please donate any of the following items: Toothpaste, toothbrushes, socks, hats, scarves, gloves, Vaseline, lip balm, hair brushes & bobbles, sanitary products, hand sanitizer. Please hand in your welcomed donation at the back of the church over the next two Sundays. As always, thank you for your kindness. (website: www.brightfutures.uk.com)

CAFOD Harvest Fast Day. Many thanks for your donations. A total of £779 has been sent to Cafod to help our poorest brothers and sisters around the world.

CAFOD World Gift Catalogues are at the back of church, which offer a way of making a real difference at Christmas to communities around the world. Please also consider making a donation to your favourite charity, whatever it may be, in lieu of a Christmas present.

Welcome to the parish family to Olivia Naylor who was Baptised last weekend.

From this week (Friday 23rd) evening Mass will be in the parish rooms for the duration of the winter months.

A Message of thanks from Felicity Tolfrey. "Thank you to everyone for all the cards, prayers, masses and messages of support I and my family have received on the loss of Gillian and how very much we appreciate them."
