THE RETURN OF MASS St James and St Aloysius Churches are now both open for Mass.

- Please don't come if you have a temperature or the other symptoms of coronavirus.
- You must use the hand sanitiser when you enter church and as you leave.
- Please follow the one-way system, up the side aisles and down the centre aisle.
- When Fr Simon is receiving Holy Communion he will say loudly The Body of Christ we will say together Amen. So that when we receive communion we will say nothing.
- Once we have received communion we must leave church.
- If you want to talk to someone you must do it in the car park, keeping social distances.

Due to Government ruling masks MUST be worn at all Church Services/Masses. Because of 'track and trace' you will have to ring this phone number 07594918476 to leave your name and phone number to book a place for weekend Masses. You don't need to book a place for weekday Mass but you MUST wear a mask. Those who are still in isolation or would rather not risk coming to Church just yet, the Bishops of England and Wales have continued to release us from the Sunday Obligation as they did at the beginning of the lockdown

REST IN PEACE

- A funeral service for Mary McMillan will be held in St James Church on Monday 25th January at 10.30am.
- A funeral service for Michael Caine will be held in St Aloysius Church on Wednesday 27th January at 11.45am.

NORTHERN CATHOLIC CALENDARS AT BACK OF CHURCH £3

Prayer during this time of Coronavirus:

“O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you,
Health of the Sick,
who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.
You, know our need,
and we are sure you will provide so that,
as in Cana of Galilee,
we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection.
Amen
